Smuin dancers break out all the right moves for Amy Seiwert's exciting world premiere.

MARVEL

Former Smuin dancer and first-ever choreographer-in-residence Amy Seiwert pushes the boundaries of dance in her latest world premiere set to the chansons of iconic cross-genre band Pink Martini. The ballet will feature dynamic movements to popular songs like "Dansez-vous," "Autrefois" and "Où est ma tête?" The incredible work is set to hit San Francisco stages (May 5 to 15) and Mountain View (May 25 to 28). Yerba Buena Center for the Arts, 700 Howard St., 415.912.1899; Mountain View Center for the Performing Arts, 500 Castro St., Mountain View, 650.903.6000, smuinballet.org

STAY Looking for the perfect staycation? Kimpton Hotel Enso debuted late last fall in Japantown with a modern wabi-sabi design. The property's renovation mimics a well-appointed home in the city and offers a peaceful Japanese style that conveys a sense of calm and equilibrium. In addition to exploring the six-block Japantown neighborhood, guests will love the Japanese-style breakfast (asa gohan, Spam donburi and udon) at Mum's, adjacent to the hotel's sleek lobby. 1800 Sutter St., 415.921.4000, ensohotelsf.com

The lobby at Kimpton Hotel Enso sets the scene with plenty of relaxing fung shui.
